Our Main Stage season begins with a new production of the Tony Award-winning, Burt Shevelove/Larry Gelbart/Stephen Sondheim musical, A FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO THE FORUM. The Romans are coming! As in the time of Plautus himself, director Jessica Stone helms an all-male troop of actors through the comic fray in this fresh, "old" take on American master and Pulitzer Prize winner Stephen Sondheim's raucous musical classic. With Tony nominee Christopher Fitzgerald leading the charge as Pseudolus, a slave who must win his freedom by playing matchmaker for his master, this toe-tapping, zany romp through ancient Rome is a paean to the Gods of Comedy.

John Guare's sensational masterwork of interconnected worlds, SIX DEGREES OF SEPARATION, directed by Anne Kauffman, will run July 14 - July 25. One evening can change the course of many lives. Into a Manhattan couple's nightly discussions of art deals and dinner reservations, a charismatic stranger arrives with stories of a famous father and promises of walk on roles in Cats: The Movie. Could he possibly be for real? This Olivier Award winner and Pulitzer finalist stirs the pot of privilege with often hilarious and ultimately heart-breaking results.

Artistic Director Nicholas Martin will direct Thornton Wilder's quintessentially American play OUR TOWN (July 28 - August 8). Set not far from the Festival's Berkshire home in the fictional Grover's Corners, New Hampshire, Wilder's masterpiece finds the beautiful in the mundane lives of people in a small town. Martin brings together a family of Williamstown favorites, including Becky Ann Baker, Dylan Baker, Jessica Hecht, Campbell Scott, and John Rubenstein as the local town-folk whose hopes and memories are chronicled in America's most beloved play.

The Main Stage season concludes with a production of Lanford Wilson's modern classic FIFTH OF JULY (August 11 - 22) in a co-production with Bay Street Theatre. This gentle comic drama from Wilson's beloved Talley Trilogy will be directed by Tony Award-nominee Terry Kinney. As friends and family gather to remember a lost loved one, a group of thirty-something prodigals from the rebellious post-Vietnam generation return to their rural Missouri home, finding themselves older and wiser, but devoid of dreams. Long-buried rivalries and burning secrets reignite on a late summer evening as this motley tribe struggles to adapt to the changes wrought in their lives.
